

1 sides. I talked to her about not taking sides. About loving both her parents. I
2 kind have like these typical things I say, cause kids say a lot of very similar
3 things. And then she starts talking about loving her Dad more than she loves
4 her Mom. And then, why do you love your Dad more, and then she started
5 talking about him talking about her living there and how much he wants her
6 there, we really want you. And him being sad.

9 Q. Could that be interpreted, Doctor, as the child's feeling that the father loves her
10 and wants her there and the mother doesn't want her there?

11 A. The only thing that she attributes to Mom is Mom having Jandora and Dad
12 being lonely. Mom's not lonely because Mom has Jandora.

13
14 Q. I didn't ask you what she said, I asked you as a psychologist, could that be
15 interpreted as the child's feeling the Dad wants her to live there and Mom
16 doesn't?
17

18 A. Mom doesn't want her to live with Dad or Mom doesn't- ?

19 Q. Mom doesn't want her to live with her.

20 A. That's not my interpretation based on- .

21
22 Q. I didn't ask you if that's your interpretation. I asked you, could that be
