RE: JCB Complaint No. 01-115

Dear Mr. Kearns:

Please be advised that the Board has assigned Complaint No. 01-115 to your complaint. This complaint number should be referred to in any future correspondence with us.

The Board does not and can not act as an appellate or reviewing court to investigate allegations of legal error. It can not review, reverse, vacate or in any way modify a judicial decision nor can it intervene in ongoing litigation.

Complaints and other documents filed with the Board are not public information. If you supply the Board with documents, then you should retain copies for your own use since the Board does not return documents or other tangible items of evidence.

The Pennsylvania Constitution provides that all proceedings of the Board shall be confidential except when the subject of the investigation waives confidentiality. Pa. Const. Art. V, Section 18(a)(8). The Board can not provide status reports of its investigation; however, you will be notified of the decision of the Board following the appropriate review.
