

MENTAL STATUS: On mental status examination, Stephanie appears as an angry, crying, young lady. She states that she wants to go home. She states "I want my daddy. I hate my mommy". Speech is within normal limits. Language is without aphasias. Thought process is logical and goal-oriented, although very depressive and angry at this time. Thought content is void of delusions. At this point, there are no auditory or visual or tactile hallucinations. Mood is reported as sad. Affect is tearful and angry. Insight is poor. Judgment poor. Cognitive function appears impaired.