Representative Jerry Stern:

Another Thanksgiving day has passed and once again I found myself staring across a somber table at two vacant chairs once filled with life and laughter. My head began shaking uncontrollably in utter disbelief that it has been five years my niece Stephanie Kearns was judicially kidnapped and my departed mother have been with us. All this pain and suffering because both were victimized directly or indirectly by family court corruption. Look up the definition of corruption. Then I drift off and wonder if your children are with you today, or are Judge Carpenter's children with him today. Just to get through this day I somehow find (real or imagined) comfort thinking... excuse me... praying that God will avenge the suffering of my family and others and hopefully Judge Carpenter will celebrate the holidays next year in prison.

Recently we were apprised by an eighteen year old classmate of Stephanie's that she has been acutely depressed for the three years since she has known her. I was told that Stephanie keeps hidden in her bedroom a box she calls her memory box. In this box she keeps letters, cards, photographs or anything else that her dad and family has given her over the years. That is anything that her mother hasn't thrown away. This eighteen year old girl observed that this perpetual depression is because Stephanie misses her father and family. Imagine that! An eighteen year old girl can see what has been causing Stephanie's emotional difficulties. Yet, the corrupt court and mental health professionals chose drugging and medically abusing a helpless child for eight years as the ultimate substitute over reunifying her with her family. This system and anybody that supports it is depraved!

Over the last two years you have been apathetically and passively evasive in responding to letters written to your office by members of my family. A vigilant and informed public (if there was such a thing) might think that each additional term you remain in office, the further disconnected you become from your constituents. Similar to Rick Geist. Quite honestly, I don't know whether to categorize your conduct as ignorant or arrogant.

Regardless, I have a few questions that I think are in your purview and about three years overdue for answers.

What is my governments problem of seeking out and prosecuting judicial corruption? As my brother previously wrote, are you and other officials in Harrisburg waiting until his daughter turns eighteen years of age and becomes another Family Court abuse statistic to be scuttled in the dead case files in the courthouse basement? Problem solved! Yes or No.

Did you ever request that the Pennsylvania State Attorney General or the United States Justice Department conduct an investigation into the criminal conduct perpetrated by Judge Hiram A. Carpenter III and his criminal associates? Or has he been politically anointed with the divine rights of kings to be held unaccountable and above the law? Yes or No.

At my brother's request have you ever made any inquiry as to a reason why the House Judiciary Committee has refused to address legitimate Constitutionally filed impeachment petitions against two corrupt judges Hiram Carpenter and William Henry? Yes or No. If so, what was the Judiciary Committee's answer or facade they hide under?

Why is it when any action is taken in Pennsylvania, namely a Federal Class Action lawsuit for Joint Custody, or legislation such as HB 2041 is introduced to restore some equality and justice in the family courts, they are swept away with God's speed? Yet pay raises for you folks that will make you the richest legislators in America are arduously and mightily pondered. Please don't insult me trying to explain that HB 2041 was outgunned by the domestic violence organizations. I and family members were at the August 24, input hearing and "all three" DV people were totally unprepared and factually and statistically deficient. Could it be that these hearings are conducted in the same manner as the Family Courts where facts and evidence are ignored or rewritten? Maybe after all the years of the political good life you are just desensitized to your constituents pain and suffering. Or possibly you still believe in old American urban legend that equality, fairness and justice actually prevails in the Blair County Court System?

What would the chances of success be if my brother was to IMPEACH all the House Judiciary Committee members for dereliction of duty and failure to uphold the Constitutions of the United States and Pennsylvania? Am I wrong to presume that taking an oath to defend and uphold the Constitution has become nothing more than ceremonial tripe? Yes or No. Who would oversee such a petition since the judiciary committee would have to forfeit its right to impeach itself?

Now mabe you and the other two hundred plus representatives solace their complacency and unwillingness to change things with the excuse that it is too hard a battle to make changes that are not politically correct. Ironically, if so, I have not seen one representative grief stricken enough to relinquish their "job" to brave people that are willing to stand up and make a difference. Before you go off on a patriotic speech how America is the most freest country in the world compared to Iraq and other oppressed countries please read the enclosed press release.

In closing, my family's eight years of trials and tribulations in my brother's case are over in about eight months. My family and I can live with ourselves. But, we revel in our Biblical knowledge and fulfilled prophecy that Judgment Day is coming rapidly. It appears you have risen above your constituents and probably won't answer my questions either. but you had better have all the right answers for God. Excuses, vanity, and political correctness won't be accepted.

Sincerely,

David B. Kearns
